

THE MAXWELL METHOD OF LEADERSHIP FOR
ENGAGING AND PRODUCTIVE MEETINGS

Most meetings are a waste of time. Why?

Because many leaders don't plan in advance and they don't use an appropriate meeting structure. As a result, their meetings are often dull or they spin out of control, leaving participants frustrated and uninspired. Leadership guru John Maxwell advises, "The secret to a good meeting is the meeting before the meeting."

Our half-day workshop, The Maxwell Method of Leadership for Engaging and Productive Meetings, outlines John's secret for successful meetings, including proven strategies to help you ensure that your meetings are purposeful, engaging, and productive.

OBJECTIVES:

- Discover why the meeting before the meeting is imperative for your success.
- Differentiate between different types of meetings and when to use each.
- Learn how to structure and lead meetings to keep them engaging, productive, and on track.
